

New Homes: Bonhay House, Exeter, Devon

The Aim of the Development

To convert an existing art – deco style building to provide good quality student housing that is close to the University and local amenities.

Housing Company
Signpost Homes

Higher Education Inst.
University of Exeter

Constructor
Core Interiors

Architect
Lacey, Hickie & Caley

Homes Built
31 student units

Total Scheme Cost
£1million

Total Grant
Privately Funded

Housing Needs Met
Student
Accommodation

The Scheme

24 of the units provide en-suite studio accommodation and seven units are ensuite cluster bedrooms where kitchen / dining facilities are shared.

Key Features

The whole interior of the building has been reconstructed using a metal frame system.

Completion Date
September 2007